SEASON WRAP UP

The 2022 season proved that Oregon's return to national prominence was not a one-year resurgence. A year after winning 39 games and returning to postseason play, the Ducks finished 36-25 and advanced to NCAA Regionals for the second consecutive season. The back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances were a first for the Ducks since the 2014 and 2015 seasons. Oregon finished fourth in the Pac-12 with an 18-12 record, the Ducks' first back-to-back top-four finish in league since the 2013 and 2014 seasons.

Individually, Oregon placed four players on the All-Pac-12 Conference team, including three first-team honorees. Closer Kolby Somers claimed first-team recognition for the second consecutive season while shortstop Josh Kasevich and designated hitter Brennan Milone both earned first-team accolades for the first time. Right fielder Anthony Hall earned honorable mention all-league honors while Kasevich also was named to the conference's all-defensive team. Milone also claimed ABCA/Rawlings first-team All-West Region honors while Kasevich and third baseman Drew Cowley were on the second team. First baseman Jacob Walsh became Oregon's first freshman All-American since the 2017 season.

ASSAULT ON SCHOOL RECORDS

The 2022 season will be remembered as the greatest offensive season in school history with eight single-season offensive records being broken. Oregon set new school bests in batting average, hits, runs, home runs, RBI, doubles, total bases and at-bats.

Offensive Single-Season Records

Category	Stat	Former Record (Year)
Average	.310	.306 (1965)
Hits	670	624 (2010)
Runs	452	379 (2021)
Home Runs	75	56 (2021)
RBI	416	334 (2021)
Doubles	122	120 (2010)
Total Bases	1,041	864 (2010)
At-Bats	2,160	2,119 (2012)

BOMBS AWAY

Of the eight new offensive records set in 2022, the first to fall was the home run record. Oregon hit its 56th home run of the season at Portland on April 19 in game No. 36 of the season, matching the school record set in 2021 during Oregon's 55-game campaign. The Ducks hit their first 56 home runs in 1,267 at-bats in 2022, while hitting 56 in 1,890 at-bats in 2021 (623 fewer ABs).

While Oregon hit home runs at an unprecedented rate, it was not just a handful of players contributing long balls. The Ducks had 13 different players hit a homer, the most ever for a modern era Ducks team. Eleven Ducks had multiple homers, the most for a Ducks team since 2009. A school record seven players hit five-or-more dingers, with one hitting four.

SMITH SHATTERS SCHOOL CAREER RUNS RECORD

Tanner Smith etched his name in the Oregon record books as the all-time leader in runs scored midway through the 2022 season. The Ducks' left fielder broke the old record held by Gabe Matthews and Aaron Payne in game one of the Washington series (April 14). Smith added 19 more runs the rest of the season to give him 20 more runs scored than Matthews and Payne.

HALL AND SMITH SET SINGLE-SEASON SHOOL RECORDS

Tanner Smith and Anthony Hall combined to set four new single-season records during the 2022 season. Smith finished with 85 hits and 268 at-bats to set new Duck records while matching the program record for multiple-hit games with 27. Hall put together an all-around great offensive season finishing with 14 home runs, five triples and 17 doubles resulting in a school record .640 slugging percentage.

Mark Wasikowski was named the 13th head baseball coach, and the second of the modern era, at Oregon on June 11, 2019. In just three seasons, Wasikowski has moved into sixth all-time in wins.

Former University of Oregon baseball coach Mel Krause, is the third-winningest baseball coach in school history and was instrumental in the return of the program following a 28-year absence.

Krause served as a player, assistant and head coach of the Ducks' baseball program in a career that spanned five decades. He served as the head coach from 1970 to 1981 when the program was eliminated, during which time he accumulated a 217-220 record and won two conference Northern Division championships.

He is a member of three sports Hall of Fames, including the Oregon Athletics Hall of Fame (2001), the Portland Interscholastic League (2002) and the State of Oregon Hall of Fame (2002).

Beyond his long career as a player and coach at Oregon, Krause left his mark throughout the state as a three-sport star at Portland's Commerce High School (now Cleveland), a professional baseball player in the Northwest League from 1954 to 1961, and as a basketball coach at Milwaukee, Franklin, North Eugene and Sheldon high schools. He led Franklin (1956) and North Eugene (1963) to basketball state championships, and led Sheldon to a state baseball title in 1966.

Following his coaching career, Krause worked as a scout for the San Francisco Giants, Philadelphia Phillies and the Los Angeles Dodgers.

DUCKS IN THE MAJOR LEAGUES

Former University of Oregon standout Joe Gordon became the Ducks' first inductee into the Baseball Hall of Fame on July 26, 2010.

Gordon was a nine-time All-Star second baseman with the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians, playing on five World Series Championship teams (1938, '39,' 41, '43 with the Yankees and 1948 with the Indians).

In 1942, Gordon was the American League MVP with the Yankees after hitting .322 and batting in 103 runs.

He played six seasons of second base for New York before joining the armed forces in 1944. He returned to baseball in 1946 and was traded to Cleveland, where he spent the last five years of his career before retiring in 1950.

In 11 seasons, Gordon hit 253 home runs, batted .268 and drove in 975 runs. Defensively he finished his career with a .970 fielding percentage and led the AL in assists four times and double plays three times.

During the Indians 1948 World Series championship run, Gordon hit .280 with 32 home runs and 124 RBI.

Gordon played for Oregon during the 1934 and 1935 seasons, and his .358 career batting average ties for fourth all-time in the record books. During the 1934 and 1935 seasons, the Ducks combined for a 30-14 record and two Pacific Coast Conference Northern Division championships.

After his playing career, Gordon managed the Cleveland Indians (1958), Detroit Tigers (1960), Kansas City A's (1961) and Kansas City Royals (1969).

Gordon was a native of Portland, Ore., and attended Jefferson High School.

PK PARK

PK Park opened on Feb. 27, 2009 to a sold-out crowd and a thrilling 1-0 victory over the 2008 defending College World Series champion Fresno State Bulldogs.

To this day, PK Park embodies the excitement and ambition of the Ducks' resurrected baseball program.

Fans do not have to miss a single pitch at PK Park, which is designed around a single, open concourse that provides incredible views of the entire playing field. Continuing the tradition of the University's top-quality athletic facilities, designers incorporated festival areas between PK Park and Autzen Stadium, offering fans a place to gather and celebrate the Ducks' success.

PK Park is equipped with a full home locker room and players' lounge, as well as a state-of-the-art video board.

The press box features three radio/television broadcast booths, an audio/visual game operations booth, and a large press area. There are also eight fully-loaded luxury suites with indoor and outdoor seating.

One of the most ADA compliant stadiums in the country, the park is fully accessible with ramps and seating at both the concourse and field level.

The park has specially designed lighting structures. From the ground level, it is 47 feet 10 inches to the top of the facility, enhancing the intimacy for the Oregon baseball team and spectators.

Eugene architect firm Cameron, McCarthy, Gilbert & Scheibe was the lead landscape architectural firm on the first phase of construction, with Larry Gilbert leading the project.

FieldTurf

The field is made of an all-weather baseball specific FieldTurf, with clay mounds and bullpens. FieldTurf is the leading provider of collegiate baseball synthetic turf and has been installing similar products at college ballparks around the country.

Player Development Area (PDA)

Opened in January 2013, the indoor PDA features four full batting cages that can be separated into eight cages. The facility cages are also retractable allowing infield to be taken inside the PDA.

A Brand New Look

Prior to the 2022 season, PK Park had a brand new playing surface installed and the park was reconfigured with the outfield walls in the power alleys and center field moved in 10 feet. The outfield wall was also lowered to 6.5 feet (raised in RF) and a new state-of- the-art video board was installed.

PK Park Facts

• Total capacity of 4,000; including 3,000 fixed seats, tiered party plaza named "Fowl Territory", picnic plaza, and 8 upper level suites

• Single, open concourse with great views of the entire synthetic turf playing field

• Entry plazas, walkways, and in-stadium concourse serve as festival areas for other events at Autzen Stadium complex

• Features an intimate seating bowl with large overhead canopy to protect spectators, numerous fan amenities, suites, press facilities, team locker and training facilities, storage, and dynamic entry plazas that tie into the overall Autzen Stadium complex

• Designed to meet State of Oregon Energy-Efficient Design guidelines (SEED) and the University of Oregon Sustainable Development Plan

• Future expansion plan allows for additional 16 suites and expandable seating bowl

• The park includes a state-of-the-art video board that was upgraded before the 2022 season

• The surface is an all-weather baseball specific FieldTurf product, with clay mounds and bullpens.

"We have designed PK Park with all the features and amenities necessary to help the University of Oregon baseball program quickly establish itself as a regular on the 'Road to Omaha'. The Ducks' passionate fans will find their new ballpark to be one of the best places in the country to cheer on their favorite team," said Greg Garlock, Designer and Principal with DLR Group.
